PREFACE.

THE Institute of Jamaica in 1902 published under the title "Bibliographia Jamaicensis" a list of Jamaica books, pamphlets, magazine articles, newspapers and maps, most of which were in the Library of the Institute.

In 1908 a Supplement was published bringing the list up to date.

The Bibliography now published covers the remainder of the West Indies, so far as books and pamphlets are concerned.

The entries are arranged chronologically under geographical divisions ; commencing with the Barbados, the sentinel of the Caribbean, taking successively the islands to the northward and eastward returning along Central and South America, and concluding with the Windward group. Many titles have been abbreviated for the sake of economy.

An index is added giving reference to all the books in the three lists.

Books not in the Library of the Institute of Jamaica are marked with an asterisk.

The Bibliography does not pretend to be exhaustive, and any notes for a revised edition will be gratefully received.
